I am going to make a list of all the countries I have been to.
First, the USA. Since I live here, that could be suspected.
Second, Canada. We were in the Boundary Waters and paddled across the Lake we were on in a canoe,(the other side was Canada) and had lunch.
Later, we found out that even Setting foot on Canadian ground in the Boundary waters was illegal. Oops!

Well, I just saw this and I think I'd better edit it. Here are some more countries

Croatia

Bulgaria

Slovenia

Serbia

Italy

Austria

Germany (in an airport if that counts)

Hungary (in an airport too)
